

So you think you can dance? We know you can dance!! Don't miss daCi Utah's Day of Dance 2010!

“So... WE think YOU can dance!”

Where: Daybreak Community Center, South Jordan, UT

When: September 25, 2010, 8am to 3pm

Who: Beginning to advanced dancers 8 years and older from public schools, private studios, and neighborhoods, teachers, parents, grandparents, your plumber, circus performers.....EVERYONE

Cost: Children-$10.00 age 8-18

Adults- $75.00 ($10.00 workshop + $65.00 membership for daCi USA 2011)

Non-Participatory Chaperones-$5.00

*Participants must bring their own lunch.

Chaperones: Each child must have an adult chaperone present! If coming with a group (studio, school, etc.), there must be one adult chaperone per 10 child participants.

Why: For a great day of creative, hip hop'n, foot tap'n fun with some of Utah's own star powered dance celebrities!

- Opportunity to Perform
- Variety of classes
- Expert feedback on original choreography
- New friends and contacts
- Outrageous Fun!
- Experienced and impressive faculty including Kay Anderson, Hefa Tuita, & Jana Lynn Memmott.

Enrollment is limited so register NOW!

ATTENTION Public School Teachers: Funding is available for busses on a first come first serve basis. Download the registration form online at daciutahdayofdance.org.

Register today at daciutahdayofdance.org or contact us at utahdayofdance@gmail.com.

